Lives and Works in Hong Kong

Karin Weber Gallery artist Jaffa Lam is a sculptor specializing in large-scale, site-specific, mixed-media sculptures and installations, which are mainly made with recycled materials like crate wood, old furniture and recycled fabric. In recent years, she has been involved in many public art and community projects in Hong Kong and overseas. Her works often explore issues related to local culture, history, society and current affairs. Apart from solo exhibitions, Lam was invited to take part in many local and international exhibitions, as well as artist residency programs in Kenya, Taiwan, Bangladesh, China, United States and Canada. She was awarded the Asian Cultural Council Desiree and Hans Michael Jebsen Fellowship in 2006.
